

House Resolution No. 2621

Whereas, upon occasion the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding individual whose achievements have earned her the trust, admiration, and respect of many; and

Whereas, Sue Proost of O'Fallon, Missouri, has been chosen Person of the Year, a most impressive accolade which was bestowed upon her by the O'Fallon Chamber of Commerce during its awards luncheon on April 27, 2004; and

Whereas, Sue Proost has distinguished herself in the business world as the manager of her family's business, Blue Ribbon Homes, Incorporated; and

Whereas, an O'Fallon Chamber of Commerce Board member, Sue Proost is a past Chairperson for the Chamber, and the Ambassadors, and members of Trivia, 5k Run, Governmental Concerns, and Celebration of Lights committees; and

Whereas, Sue Proost is an Adult Education Instructor for the St. Charles Public School District, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, a graduate of Lindenwood University, Sue Proost has also enjoyed recognition by serving as President of the St. Charles County League of Chambers and as a member of the United States Title's Advisory Board and the Board of the St. Charles County Arts Council; and

Whereas, it is most fitting and proper for this legislative body to honor Sue Proost, an uncommon leader who is described by her peers as dedicated, devoted, hardworking, and visionary:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our hearty congratulations and best wishes to Sue Proost upon her selection as the 2004 Person of the Year; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Sue Proost, as a measure of our esteem for her.
